

Bangladesh Institute of Governance and Management

Plot# E-33, Sher E Bangla Nagar, Agargaon, Dhaka-1207

Opportunity of work on lien

Bangladesh Institute of Governance and Management (BIGM), formerly known as the Civil Service College, Dhaka, is a premier knowledge hub of Bangladesh which conducts academic, research, training and other intellectual capacity building activities. The Institute is known for the bunch of high caliber training courses, Public Policy focused research works and Academic Masters programmes on the broad area of Governance. In order to upscale the activities further, BIGM wishes to recruit a few experienced members of Bangladesh civil service (BCS) on lien through a talent hunt process.

2. The ideal candidate should be incumbent officials of Bangladesh Civil service who have at least one post graduate degree from a highly ranked and reputed foreign university. Officials who have publication in reputed peer reviewed and indexed journal or who have substantive quantitative research background are strongly encouraged to apply.

3. Young talents with at least 08 (eight) years of service experience as well as laureates (age, preferably, not exceeding 55 years) are welcome to apply. Furthermore, candidates should have, preferably, at least 5 years of service in different positions in District, and Upzila level along with sound service record and reputation.

4. Successful candidates might be offered roles in different positions (including positions like Additional Director) in the Institute considering their attitude, quality and experience.

5. This is a contractual opportunity with competitive compensation package. Selected official might be considered for 03 (Three) years of service in the Institute on lien which can be extended further if performance is considered satisfactory.

6. Confidentiality will be maintained in this recruitment process. Only shortlisted persons will be contacted within 01 (One) month of the last date of application submission.

7. Interested candidates are requested to send directly a recent photo, resume, copy of qualifications along with the copy of the certificate of the last degree and other relevant documents, addressed to the Director, Bangladesh Institute of Governance and Management (BIGM), Plot# E-33, Sher E Bangla Nagar, Agargaon, Dhaka-1207, should reach by 20 June, 2022, by the email, recruitment@bigm.edu.bd or by post or courier.

(Dr. Mohammad Fareque)
Director