Two-years Master's Scholarship Program in International Relations and Diplomacy with Tribhuvan University of Nepal for the Academic Year 2021-2023

Greetings from the Colombo Plan Secretariat!

The Colombo Plan Secretariat is pleased to announce that the Tribhuvan University of Nepal has invited applications for a two year Master's Program in International Relations and Diplomacy for their academic year 2021- 2023

In this connection, the Colombo Plan member countries are kindly requested to encourage suitable candidates to apply for this masters program through the online registration portal of the Tribhuvan University (<https://entrance.tufohss.edu.np>) and forward the duly completed forms along with the Academic Transcripts/ Certificates to the email address (prem.khanal@dird.tu.edu.np) of DIRD as a single PDF file. Please advise interested candidates to pursue the details carefully and fully understand the nature of the scholarship and the procedures of submitting the applications.

The member countries are further requested to notify the recommended candidates to the Colombo Plan Secretariat in writing along with a copy of their applications on or before 31st October 2021. Please note that no consideration will be given to late and incomplete application submissions.

This scholarship program is jointly organized by the National Planning Commission of the Government of Nepal and the Department of International Relations and Diplomacy, Tribhuvan University in Nepal. Therefore, the total expenditure will be borne by the aforementioned two parties accordingly.

Your kind cooperation in sharing the above information with the relevant institutions and submitting to the Secretariat your recommendations of the candidates and their copies of the applications in keeping with the timeline would be much appreciated.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely,

Ambassador Phan Kieu Thu, PhD.
Secretary General
