Secretary
Economic Relations Division
Ministry of Finance
Government of Bangladesh
Dhaka, Bangladesh

Dear Ms. Secretary:

Subject: E-Learning Course on Decentralization, Local Governance, and Localizing Sustainable Development Goals in Asia and the Pacific (6 June–22 July 2022)—Invitation

The Asian Development Bank (ADB) is organizing the 2022 edition of the e-learning course on “Decentralization, Local Governance, and Localizing Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in Asia and the Pacific” from 6 June to 22 July 2022. The tutored e-learning program is designed to address the learning needs of Government officials of ADB’s developing member countries. The flyer and announcement are attached for information.

The course is structured into seven modules offering potential learning benefits including understanding basic concepts of decentralization and local governance, greater awareness of the implementation challenges of decentralization and local governance reforms, and familiarization with the policy linkages between the 2030 Agenda and its SDGs among others.

We would like to invite interested Government officials to take part in the e-learning course. The course will be free of charge for all participants.

Interested officials may apply for the e-learning course through this link (<https://survey.in-line-consult.de/index.php?sid=87462&lang=en>) by 27 May 2022. Selected applicants will be informed of their acceptance by 31 May 2022. For further information, please contact Mr. Toni Figurasin (mfigurasin@adb.org) and Ms. Aly Escandor (aescandor@adb.org).

Sincerely,

SH Edimon Ginting
Country Director
